Honors and Awards

- Awarded three Society for Technical Communications (STC) New England Design awards for his clients Hewlett Packard and Microsoft Corporation. The awards are for Best of Show, Award of Distinction and Certificate of Recognition. The Society for Technical Communications (STC) is the largest organisation dedicated to advancing the arts and sciences of technical communication. The STC New England Design Award is one of the most prestigious of its kind.
- Recipient of the "Seattle Weekly's" third place award for "Photographing Women," competition which was held in conjunction with the Seattle Art Museum's Annie Liebovitz Exhibition. This image was selected as cover photo for the issue announcing the award winners. "Seattle Weekly" is one of Seattle's largest syndicate newspapers geared toward current trends. The photographic competition, "Photographing Women," received more than 800 applicants from across the USA.
- Awarded Compassionate Photographer of the Year from the RoseWater Network for work done with disabled people, AIDS and the environment. The RoseWater Network is a non-profit organisation in the USA that recognizes artists for their talent and contributions to the community.
